SOUTHWEST MISSISSIPPI JUNIOR COLLEGE

SUMMIT, MISSISSIPPI

Office Of
THE PRESIDENT

The Sophomore Class
Southwest Junior College
Summit, Mississippi

Thanks to you, members of the Staff of the Whispering Pines, for your endeavor to arouse the spirit of enthusiasm for a greater Southwest Mississippi Junior College.

Now of all times, the Junior College has reached the blooming point of advancement and is ready for growth and expansion.

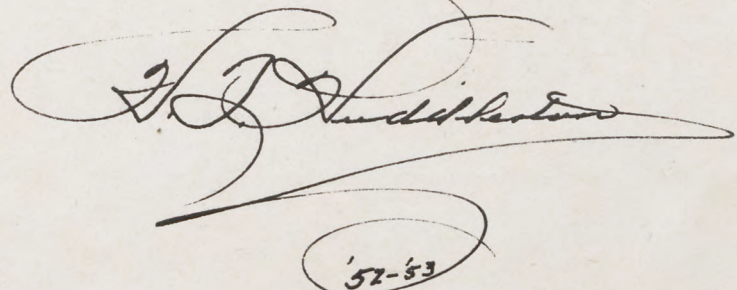

To the taxpayers of this commonwealth we wish to say that your money will be spent to the greatest benefit of mankind and that in future years you can look upon this institution and exclaim in all truth and sincerity, "I helped make it what it is, and it is mine."

If we succeed in exciting the spirit of progress for our school in the breast of only one who otherwise would not have caught it, then our efforts have not been spent in vain.

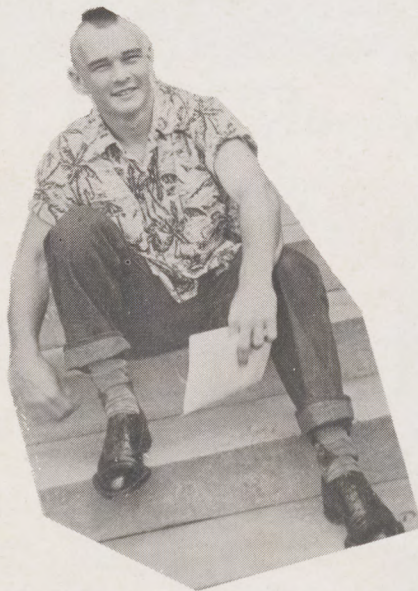

God grant that the germ of ambition which he has given us for a greater Junior College will impel us to achieve, develop, and attain.

May our aspirations be filled with industry. Without industry, ambition can only lead to disquieted dreaming.

Very sincerely yours,

THE F. T. A.

The F. T. A. is a college club composed of the future teachers of America. It brings to the student the motivating power of a lifelong purpose and a nationwide outlook. It is designed to develop ideals and power in the lives of its members; to enrich the spirit of college life; to advance the interests of the teaching profession; to promote the welfare of the children; and to foster the education of all the people. It enables a student to have four years of preliminary preparation plus four years of definite training during college years for professional leadership.

Officers of the F. T. A.: Kathryn Raborn, Secretary; Peggy Vigil, President; and Thomas Hudgens, Vice-President.

THE AGRICULTURE CLUB

The members are: Dan Wells, Rodney Barr, Roy Wall, Alton Burris, Jr., Lawrence Robins, Wendell Deer, Leon Brister, James Chisholm, Bob Rollins, Elton Bostick, and Walter Dickerson and Joe Pigott.

Officers

President: Alton Burris, Jr.
Secretary and Treasurer: Rodney Barr
Reporter: Bob Rollins

This Club is under the direction of Mr. J. J. Lindley. It is one of the most progressive clubs on the Campus. It is composed primarily of students studying Agriculture. The Club's main purpose is to train its members to be leaders in their field after graduation. This organization sponsors various projects for the purpose of improving the agriculture facilities for the college. The outstanding objective this year is to acquire an Ayrshire breed of cattle.

The Home Economics Club

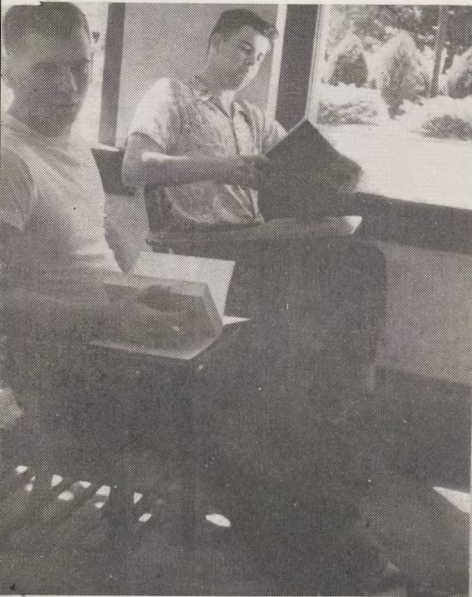

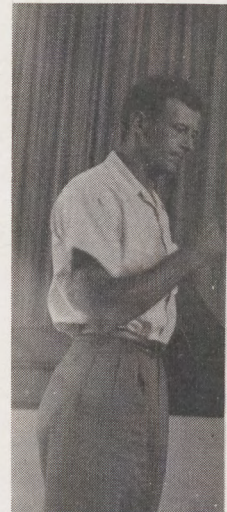

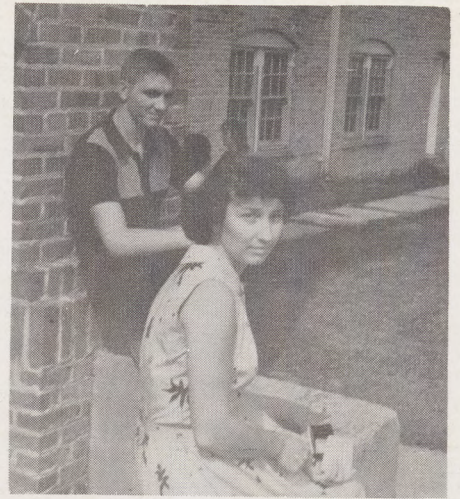

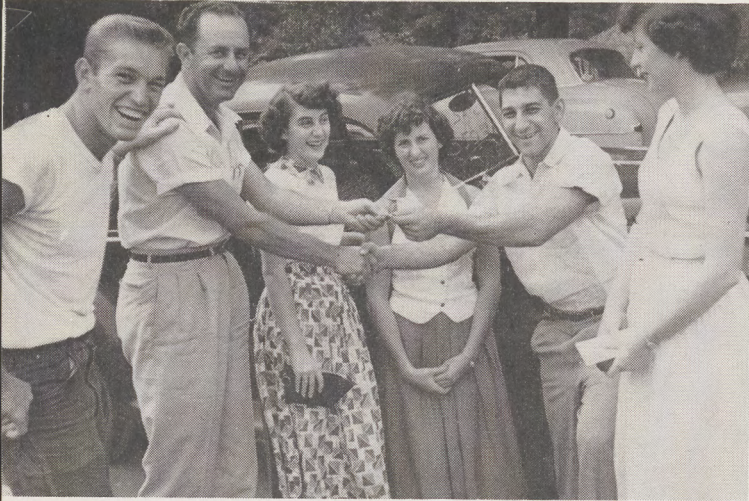

This organization is affiliated with both state and national American Home Economics Associations. Its purpose is: (1) To promote better understanding of the American Home Economics Association and its relationships; (2) To strengthen the individual club; (3) To put "home" in home economics; (4) To further the professional attitudes; and (5) To promote better public relations.

Le Cerole François

The French Club, tentatively known as the Le Cerole François, is a group composed of students studying French culture and history.

The organization has its own study and social groups. It meets twice each month, under the direction of Miss Lona Burns.

"Le Cerole François" Officers: Vice-president, Max Simmons, Secretary and Treasurer, Mary Janice McCarthy and Reporter, Marjorie McCaskell.

The Art Club

Southwest's Initial Art Club, under the direction of Roy Schultz, Jr. with Mrs. J. E. Magee as sponsor, was formulated in 1951.

This club has done much to stimulate interest in all types of creative work. The art exhibits which the club has sponsored have accomplished much in this direction. Several members of this club are affiliated with the New Orleans Art Association.

The Art Club has contributed several paintings for exhibition at the Issac Delgado Museum of New Orleans, Louisiana and at the Municipal Art Gallery in Jackson, Mississippi.

The Treble Clef

The Treble Clef

This club is under the supervision of Miss Vivian Aston, piano and voice instructor. Its objectives are to enrich the social and cultural as well as musical life of the students. One main feature is to attend some renowned musical event each year. This season the members of the club plan to attend the operetta "Faust" in New Orleans at the Municipal Auditorium. The trip also includes an all-day sight-seeing tour of the Crescent city.

Treble Clef Officers:
Ashley Ingram, President;
Kathryn Raborn, Vice-President;
June Reid, Secretary and Treasurer, and Delores
Cody, Reporter.

S. M. J. C. FOOTBALL and MARCHING BAND

The Southwest Mississippi Junior College Band under the direction of C. Edward Yarborough was reorganized in September 1952 and added much to the fighting spirit of the BEARS during the football and basketball seasons. The forty-four piece marching band turned to concert work the second semester and enjoyed several nice trips and at the same time promoted the wholesome spirit of S. M. J. C. Membership in the S. M. J. C. Band is open to those men and women who are interested and qualified in carrying on their musical abilities. High school students are accepted and play a great part in our band and orchestra department.

"THAT FRIENDLY SCHOOL"

APPRECIATION TO OUR ADVERTISERS

To our friends and business associates, we gratefully express our appreciation for your exhibition of interest in our school and yearbook.

Your co-operation has been very helpful to us, and we believe that our advertising division has been profitable to you. By taking advantage of our advertising division, we feel that you have a part in the building of a GREATER SOUTHWEST.

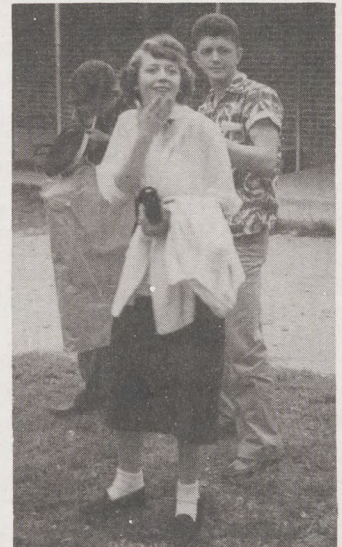

Tea costs you so little per serving that the difference between an ordinary tea and a Sexton guest tea is infinitesimal. But the difference in guest pleasure is equalled by few if any other items on your menu. Cured to our special requirements in the tea gardens of the Orient, blended and packed with special care, the fragrant bouquet of Sherman Blend Luxury Tea wins approval at first sip from the steaming cup . . . or cooling glass.

In Appreciation

"Toward a Greater Southwest" -- that theme provided inspiration last fall as we felt the spirit of a growing school.

Every day, every event of this past year contributed to our physical, mental, spiritual, or social growth. In this issue of the Whispering Pines, we have tried to convey to you our impression of a growing and greater Southwest.

To the many, many people who have aided in making this book we wish to extend our earnest thanks. To our constant advisor and co-worker, Mrs. J. E. Magee, we offer our heartfelt appreciation; to Mr. Huddleston, our sincere thanks for his co-operation and helpful advice.

We recognize with gratitude the co-operation of the publisher and the photographers.

Our deepest appreciation goes to Charles Harrell, the snapshot photographer; to the advertising staff along with Bennie Vaccarella for his voluntary aid in that department; to each member of the faculty for his splendid co-operation; to our classmates who have understood and given encouragement.

Perhaps our errors are many but please overlook these and enjoy this book as much as we have enjoyed editing this edition of the WHISPERING PINES.
